DISILLUSIONED.

Oh, you who set much store By beauty's comedy seeming, Should bear in mind, before You take to lovesick dreaming, That beauty, when it's not skin deep,
Is often cheap and fady—
Ask Brady.

For Brady had a bride who was sweet and plump (outside),
And she looked every bit a lady.

How Brady used to rave
Of Sadio's silken tresses, And of the form that gave Grace to his true love's dresses!
You never saw a man more daff, Than he about his Sadio—
Ask Brady.

Yes, Brady's lovely bride seemed a worthy source of pride And she put on the airs of a lady.

He found in her boudoir Soon after they were wedded A shock and then some more—His love was quite baldheaded!
She coyly proceeded to segregate, Before the eyes of Brady, Did Sadio.

From herself the pads and puffs and other similar stuffs, Till little was left of the lady!

THE CIVIC LEAGUE

LADIES AND THEIR PAPER.

"Paper, lady? Paper? Only ten cents, mister, and well worth twice the money, Paper?"

This was the greeting which the business man who hurried down town to his office, or the little lady on a general shopping spree received yesterday when they sallied forth in the brisk March air for a triumphant passage down Palafox street.

There were none of your grimy little newsboys either who shouted their wares, but if you looked up in a polite surprised sort of a way, you know, you were assailed by a pair of dancing eyes, probably, and a very determined little Civic League lady set upon selling you one of the numbers of the Woman's edition of the Evening News, of which she was most excessively proud.

You just had to buy.
You felt horribly cheap and mean if you had thoughtlessly left your pocketbook at home, and looked around immediately for the loan of a dime.

I saw one man sneak furtively up a back alley on his way to the postoffice.

"I've already bought 14," he said helplessly, "but the ladies! I just can't refuse them! And I won't see where I can very well use any more than I already have."

"You meet me here at 1 o'clock, sharp," hoarsely whispered another man, the Blount corner to his companion, "and give me this bunch of papers to carry around with me for safety's sake. You can have it while I'm home to dinner."

In fact, the ladies worked with a vital akin to no other organization of local women than the Civic League, and they succeeded, too!

Everybody bought, and was pleased, for the edition itself was one of extraordinary and actual interest. A thirty-six page affair, it couldn't really have been beaten in its general content and make-up, with the following staff. You may judge for yourself—here they are:

Mrs. Abbott Waterman, Editor in Chief.

Beware of Ointment's for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists. Price 75 cents per bottle.

Empire Laundry

"Where Linen Lasts"

W. C. MACKEY, Mgr.

Phone 322.

Mrs. Nellie Cravey Gillmore, Associated Editor.

Mrs. John C. Avery, City Editor.

Mrs. Scarritt Moreno, Associated City Editor.

Mrs. J. Storm McGaughey, Society Editor.

Miss Hilda Blount, Sporting Editor.

Miss Zadie Adams, Art Editor.

Mrs. C. W. Oliver, Children's Department.

Mrs. Marian Avery, Woman's Department.

Mrs. Evelyn C. Maxwell, Fashion Department.

Mrs. Alfred Moog, Advertising Manager.

Mrs. Morris Bear, Circulation Manager.

Each department was conducted without a flaw, and each of the ladies deserves special mention for the fine work which has been theirs.

Mrs. Abbott Waterman, the dainty little editor in chief of the edition, came fully up to the expectations of her local admirers, and Mrs. Alfred Moog, who is one of Pensacola's most capable and charming women, did actually wonders as advertising manager.

The financial success of the big venture, in fact, is due to her calm business judgment, her unfailing energy, and her well spent efforts among the business people of the city.

Mrs. Morris Bear, as circulation manager, was also one of the busiest on the staff, but came out with flying colours yesterday, in a manner which did both herself and the edition credit.

The deft hand and subtle power of another clever Pensacola woman might be plainly distinguished throughout the paper, that of Mrs.
Nellie Cravey Gillmore, who had much to do with the success of the effort.

"The Temptation," a very fine story from her pen, proved one of the leading articles.

Miss Olga White wrote cleverly in "Expression and Dramatic Art," handling her subject well.

"Art and the Artists," another valuable department, was conducted by Miss Adams, while "Progressive Pensacola," by Mesdames Jno. C. Avery and Scarritt Moreno is a valuable and interesting feature.

boost for the city.

The U. D. C. was generally and very attractively represented.

One of the very best things in the paper (if you're to take my word for it) is, "What's What in Masculine Matters," by Miss A. Marian Avery and Miss Gwendolyn E. Menefee.

The whole affair is so screamingly funny, the wit so good and admirably placed, that I defy any previous or expected woman's edition to beat it.

Question of the representative caliber of those contained in the usual column of queries in a metropolitan paper, are painstakingly answered by the young ladies in a manner which has made the whole town smile with delight.

"Though I am a Pensacola man, I have just returned to my native city after an absence of many years," writes "Percy." "I want to show my lady friends a good time, and would appreciate it if you would put me wise to some of the social customs of the Smart Set, through the columns of your esteemed paper."

"Would you kindly tell me how often it would be considered proper for me to ask the girls to go to the theatre. Would I be expected to buy candy or other light refreshments during the intermissions? What gifts may a gentleman offer a lady with propriety? Is it considered good form for a gentleman to escort a young lady to a dance? I hear this is done in other cities and would like to know if it is ever done here."

Here is the answer which "What's What" submits for the edification of the anxious "Percy":

"We cannot give you a definite answer to your first question, Percy, because we do not know how often the theatre will be open during the season, but we advise you to secure season tickets that you may be prepared to everything that comes along."

"As to the refreshments—if you are intimately acquainted, the young lady may offer to prepare a dainty lunch of fried chicken, stuffed eggs, pickles, or any other little delicacy suitable for the occasion, which you may eat between acts."

"It is, of course, perfectly proper for a gentleman to escort a lady to a dance, but this, like the good old custom of New Year's calling, is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. However, it is still occasionally done here."

"It has given us much pleasure to answer your letter at length, and we hope to hear from you again."

"It is always a bad plan to refuse invitations, as it is apt to put you in a bad light. If you receive one that is likely to interfere with business, accept by all means and let the Gold Dust Twins do your work."

The Social Department, conducted by Mrs. McGaughey, is also excellent.
In fact, all of the various departments are faultless, and the entire proceeds of the big undertaking will go toward fulfilling the present plans of the Civic League relative to a future City Beautiful.

PALM SUNDAY

THE BEAUTIFUL.

Next Sunday will be Palm Sunday.

All Catholic and Episcopal churches in Pensacola are planning appropriate observances to occur on this day, which is one of the most interesting and picturesque in the entire church calendar. The use of palms will be more in evidence this year in Pensa-

PROGRESS CLUB ENTERTAINED WITH EUCHRE.

The Progress Club conducted its usual weekly euchre party last night, a large number having been present.
The club, according to plans, will be the scene of many interesting events during the early spring season.

INTEREST CONTINUES UNABATED.

Interest continues unabated at the East Hill Baptist church, where a week of prayer is being conducted, last night's meeting having been one of exceptional merit and value. Each night some of the members are called upon to lead, and the plan has served to awaken a general interest which has worked wonders for the cause.

MET WITH MRS. THORNTON.

A business meeting of the Woman's Memorial Association occurred yesterday morning at the home of Mrs.
Laura Thornton on West Belmont street. Matters which are of importance relative to certain plans were under discussion, a number having been present.

NEW CITY FLINCH CLUB WILL MEET TODAY.

The New City Flinch Club will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Pete, on the corner of Alcaniz and Chase streets. The ladies are anticipating a delightful afternoon, characteristic, in fact, to the interesting flinch club affairs.

PLAN A TRIP THROUGH ENGLAND.

Among the delightful trips to be taken by Pensacola people this year will be that which is being planned by Mr. and Mrs. L. Hilton Green, who, with their son and daughter, will tour England in their automobile, and will thus be afforded a rare opportunity of visiting the places of actual interest under the most favorable of circumstances.

The tour, in fact, is one which is cleverly planned, with a view to affording pleasure, as well as giving delightful instruction.
